CARDS FOR A CAUSE

2017 WHOLESALE LINESHEET

7/2017

Atiliay is a line of thoughtful hand lettered greeting cards, created by Olivia Lin, in Orange County, CA. Atiliay's mission is to help each customer send love to the special people in their lives as well as those in need around the world. Each card is paired with a non-profit with a portion of proceeds being donated with every purchase. Atiliay hopes to make a lasting and meaningful impact through creativity and compassion.

The name "Atiliay" is adapted from the French word "atelier" meaning workshop or studio especially for an artist or designer.

Each card is created from original hand lettering (it's not a font!) that is digitized and combined with a modern typeface.
