1 - Write a letter to someone you have never sent mail to before.

2 - Write to someone under the age of 10--this is a favorite of mine!

3 - Go through your phone and print out some photos with friends and family and send it to them.

4 - Make a playlist of your favorite songs right now and send them to a fellow music lover! Bonus: include lyrics or your favorite lines from each song.

5 - Send a thank you card.

6 - Plan a get together and mail out invitations.

7 - Who inspires you? Send them a letter with how they have impacted your life.

8 - Write down your favorite uplifting quote. Put it in an envelope and address it “To: You”. Leave it in a public place for someone to find.

9 - Get postcards of the city you live in and mail them to friends who are out of state/country.

10 - What is one your favorite recipes? Send it to a foodie and ask them to send you theirs!

11 - Write yourself a letter and put it in a sealed envelope. Open up and read it this time next year.

12 - Write someone a letter written entirely in cursive.

13 - Have you recently seen or heard something that reminded you of someone? Write to them and tell them about it!

14 - Get your stickers and washi tape out and decorate an envelope with it. Include some in your letter for your recipient to use as well!

15 - Has someone close to you experienced a major life event recently? Find a card for the occasion to send to them.

16 - Send some unexpected mail to someone who lives close by.

17 - Gift your favorite book to a fellow reader--leave a note between the pages of your favorite part(s).

18 - Mail a donation to your favorite non-profit along with a note on why you support their work.

19 - Send mail from your pet to someone else’s pet!
30 IDEAS FOR 30 DAYS OF SNAIL MAIL (continued)

20 - Send someone a sweet treat or a package with your favorite snacks!

21 - Pick a theme or color and create mail inspired by it!

22 - Do you have any snail mail to catch up on? This is the perfect time to do that!

23 - Connect with a social media friend off-screen and mail them a fun card!

24 - Mail someone an activity (coloring pages) or puzzle (crossword, sudoku, etc.) to do or solve.

25 - Send someone a gift, just because.

26 - Let your voice be heard! Write to your local government officials.

27 - Share why you love a local business by sending them a letter about how great their customer service, product, food, etc. is.

28 - Go to a local stationery store and browse the card section until you see one that is perfect for someone you know--send it to them!

29 - Get a head start on upcoming birthdays and holidays by getting cards and letters ready to be mailed.

30 - Send someone mail that will make them LOL when they read it :)

Jot down any other snail mail ideas or notes below:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________